SHREVEPORT-BOSSIER CITY

Centenary College is located two miles from downtown Shreveport, the third largest city in the state of Louisiana. Shreveport is located on the west bank of the Red River in Northwest Louisiana. Over 300,000 people reside in the metropolitan Shreveport area.

Shreveport is considered the geographical, cultural, and economic center of the region known as the Ark-La-Tex, encompassing East Texas, Northern Louisiana, and Southern Arkansas. Shreveport is only a few hours away by car from other major cities such as Dallas and Houston in Texas, Baton Rouge and New Orleans in Louisiana, Jackson, Mississippi, and Little Rock, Arkansas.

Shreveport is separated from Bossier City by the Red River, but many locals consider themselves residents of the Shreveport-Bossier region as a whole instead of one of the specific cities. People who live here think nothing of crossing the river to take in an event, no matter which city is the official host.

There seems to always be a festival going on that shines a spotlight on some aspect of life in Shreveport-Bossier that is unique. In May, the Mudbug Madness Festival celebrates the abundance of crawfish found in the area, while African-American culture is celebrated in June with the Good Times Roll Festival, featuring music, art and food.

One of the major highlights of the year in Shreveport is the State Fair of Louisiana, held every October. The fair features more than 70 rides and one of the finest livestock gatherings in the United States.

Another major event that showcases Shreveport on a national level is the Mainstay Independence Bowl, held in late December. The annual football game, featuring a team from the Big 12 Conference against one from the Southeastern Conference, is carried on national television and showcases the Shreveport-Bossier community coming together to make the event a success.

That is not the only athletic competition held in the area. The CenturyTel Center, a 12,000-seat arena opened in 2000, is the home of minor league hockey and arena football, as well as basketball games and wrestling events. National fishing tournaments and golf tournaments have also been brought to Shreveport-Bossier in recent years.

The area features a wide range of museums, from autos and aviation to science and Elvis Presley. Many of the buildings in downtown Shreveport are now listed on the National Register of Historic Places, and a trip to the piney woods of Northwest Louisiana will yield visits to rural towns such as Vivian, Plain Dealing and Shongaloo, each one with its own collection of treasures, history, and fine dining.

There are plenty of outdoor activities in the Shreveport-Bossier area. From hiking at the Cypress Black Bayou Recreational Area to golfing at Olde Oaks Golf Club, a Hal Sutton signature course and part of the Audubon Golf Trail, there is something for everyone.

Festival Plaza near Downtown Shreveport, where many gatherings are held throughout the year, such as the Mudbug Madness Festival and the Red River Revel.

MID-CONTINENT CONFERENCE

In its 22nd year as an NCAA Division I athletics league, the Mid-Continent Conference enters an exciting new era in 2003-04. Established in 1982 as the Association of Mid-Continent Universities (AMCU), the Mid-Con has built a reputation in the world of intercollegiate athletics as a nationally competitive and well respected league. This year, it welcomes its first new member institution in six years, and, for the first time in a decade, will have a new face in the Commissioner's office.

The Mid-Con's member schools - Centenary College of Louisiana, Chicago State University, IUPUI (Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis), UMKC (University of Missouri-Kansas City), Oakland University, Oral Roberts University, Southern Utah University, Valparaiso University and Western Illinois University - are located primarily in the Midwest's largest urban areas, and pride themselves on providing quality athletic, academic and social experiences for their student-athletes.

The Mid-Con was founded in 1982, when eight universities banded together to form an NCAA Division I conference. Under the direction of the league's first commissioner, F.L. "Frosty" Ferzacca, the AMCU-8 and its members sponsored nine men's championship sports in that first season. The league's initial line-up included Cleveland State, Eastern Illinois, Illinois-Chicago, Northern Iowa, Southwest Missouri State, Valparaiso, Western Illinois and Wisconsin-Green Bay.

The league's first ten years saw a variety of highlights, including a name change to the now familiar Mid-Continent Conference in 1990. The AMCU first received national attention in 1986, when Cleveland State used its 27-3 record to earn an at-large invitation to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. The Vikings put the Conference on the map with a stunning 83-79 upset of No. 3 seed Indiana, on their way to a "Sweet 16" appearance.

The league experienced a change in leadership in 1988, when Ferzacca stepped down as the AMCU-8 commissioner. Jerry Ippoliti took over the reins, and guided the Conference into its second decade. Two years after Ippoliti took over as Commissioner, the Mid-Con sent a conference-record three members to men's basketball postseason play in 1990.

The Mid-Con celebrated its 10-year anniversary in 1991-92, and did so in part by announcing plans to debut six women's championship sports the following year. Mid-Con membership reached its peak at ten members during the 1993-94 campaign. The league withstood a major change in membership following the 1993-94 season when six schools departed, but that record number stayed consistent for a total of three years thanks to six new members that joined prior to the 1995-96 season. Current members Chicago State and UMKC were two of the schools chosen to replace the departed institutions in 1994.

Dr. Jon Steinbrecher became the Mid-Con's third Commissioner in 1994, and he spearheaded a major change in the league's membership during his league-record nine-year tenure. Five new members have joined the Mid-Con in the last six years - Oral Roberts and Southern Utah both came on board in 1997, IUPUI and Oakland joined the following year, and Centenary will begin Mid-Con competition this season after accepting an invitation to become the league's ninth member institution in the fall of 2002. Steinbrecher left the Mid-Con in the spring of 2003 to take the same position with the Ohio Valley Conference, and was replaced by Ron Bertovich, a former Atlantic 10 Conference Commissioner who had most recently served as the Executive Vice President for Administration for the NHL's Buffalo Sabres.

The 1997-98 basketball season ended up providing the Mid-Con with some of the most memorable moments in league history. Former member Youngstown State gave the Mid-Con its first-ever win in the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament when it upset No. 5 seed Memphis by a 91-80 score. However, it was a well-designed out-of-bounds play and some last-second heroics by a Valparaiso senior that epitomized "March Madness" for the year.

Valparaiso posted a 70-69 win over No. 3 seed Mississippi in the first round of the 1998 NCAA Tourney, but it was no ordinary victory. With just 2.5 seconds left on the clock and Valparaiso trailing by two, the Crusaders' Bryce Drew capped a set play that included a three-quarters court pass and a lateral by draining a 23-footer at the buzzer. The play not only sent Valparaiso on its way to a "Sweet 16" appearance, but also earned Drew an ESPY from ESPN.

Though some of the Mid-Con's most notable achievements have come on the basketball court, the league's successes are hardly restricted to the hardwood. The Mid-Con has seen many of its student-athletes continue their careers at the professional level in a variety of sports, including Drew, a member of the New Orleans Hornets, and former Wright State pitcher Brian Anderson, a member of the 2001 World Champion Arizona Diamondbacks. In addition, the Conference has boasted several Olympic athletes, including Oakland women's soccer player Anita Rapp, who won a gold medal while playing for the Norwegian women's soccer team at the 2000 Sydney Games, and UMKC's Marcia Daniel, who was Dominica's flag-bearer at the Opening Ceremonies that same year.

Mid-Con representatives have maintained the league's two-decade-long tradition of excellence on both a regional and national level. UMKC tallied a first-round upset over Wisconsin-Milwaukee (2-1, OT) in 2001, the league's first-ever NCAA Men's Soccer Tourney win. Later that year, Valparaiso posted the biggest turnaround in NCAA Division I women's basketball, going 26-7 and reaching the 2002 WNIT quarterfinals. The 2002-03 basketball season was highlighted by the fact the Mid-Con sent four teams - IUPUI and Valparaiso in men's basketball, and Valparaiso and Western Illinois on the women's side - to postseason play in the same year for the first time in conference history. Oral Roberts' volleyball and baseball squads have each made six consecutive trips to their respective NCAA Tournaments since joining the Mid-Con; the Golden Eagle baseball squad reached the regional final in 2002 after knocking off top-seeded and host Wichita State twice in as many days. Oakland has won a game in the NCAA Softball Tournament each of the last two seasons.

Great teams are made up of great student-athletes, and the Conference has certainly had its share of those recently. Rapp earned region Player of the Year honors for Oakland in women's soccer in 2001 before moving onto a career in the WUSA. On the basketball court, both the men and women have had representation on a variety of All-America teams, including Oakland's Mike Helms, who set a Mid-Con single-season scoring record (26.9 ppg) in 2002-03. UMKC's Matt Voelker earned All-America honors in the high jump at the 2002 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championship, and Oral Roberts' Marsha Dawkins earned All-America honors in the 400 meter dash at both the 2003 NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Track Championships.

Not restricted to success on the fields of play, Mid-Con athletes have made their mark in the classroom as well. The league had numerous Verizon Academic All-District selections in 2002-03, with six student-athletes chosen to Academic All-America teams. Two of those individuals - IUPUI's Tiffany Kyser and UMKC's Jon Kelley - were named first-team Academic All-Americans in women's basketball and men's track and field/cross country, respectively. Kyser was also named as the inaugural winner of the Creamland Dairies College Basketball Student-Athlete of the Year in 2003.

The Mid-Con sponsors 19 championship sports, which includes: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's indoor track & field, men's and women's outdoor track & field, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball.

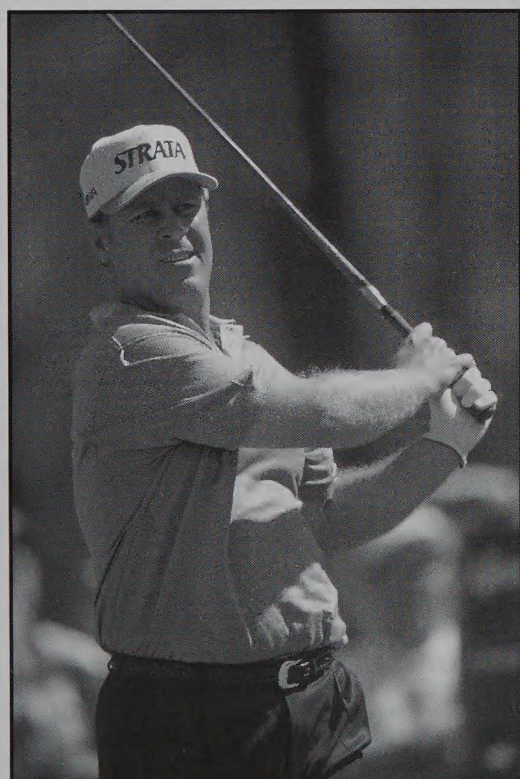

CENTENARY ATHLETICS

Centenary College of Louisiana has fielded an athletic team in at least one sport since 1894, when the football team faced Louisiana State University. Centenary's football squad was one of the best in the South in the first half of the 20th century, the high point being an undefeated 10-0 season in 1927.

Centenary produced professionals Conway Baker, Buddy Parker, and Cal Hubbard. Hubbard is a member of three halls of fame: Pro Football Hall of Fame, College Football Hall of Fame, and Baseball Hall of Fame. However, the poor oil economy in the area forced the discontinuation of the football program in 1947.

The 1920s saw the establishment of the men's basketball and baseball teams at Centenary. The basketball Gents have had 44 seasons with a .500 or better winning percentage, including the 2002-2003 campaign.

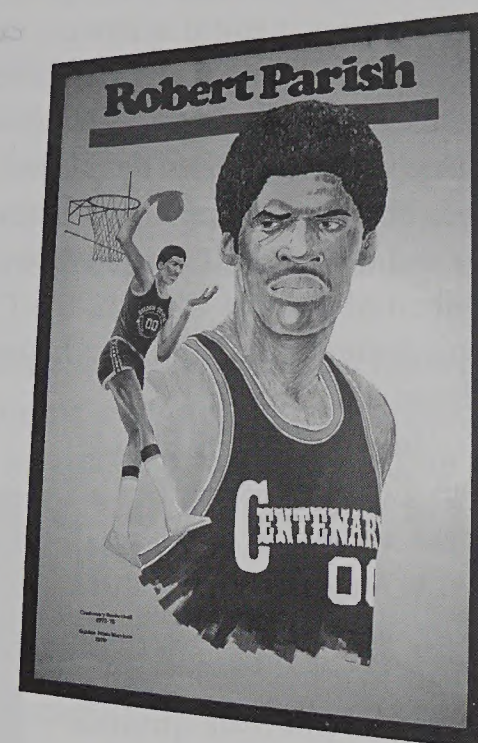

Hal Sutton '81

From 1972 to 1976, Robert Parish dominated Centenary's opponents, leading the Gents to an 87-21 record over that span. Parish still holds numerous Centenary records, including the single game scoring record (50 points vs. Lamar in 1972), the single season rebounding record (18.7 rpg in 1972-73), and the career record for most field goals made (1,034). Parish was drafted in the first round by the Golden State Warriors in 1976 and later, as part of arguably the greatest frontcourt in NBA history, won three NBA championships with the Boston Celtics in the 1980s.

With a new 1,000-seat stadium, the baseball team is attracting top players to play for Centenary and top teams to play against the Gents. Thirty players who put on the Centenary uniform have gone on to play professionally. In recent years, the Gents have hosted Nebraska, Texas A&M, Kansas, Alabama, Arkansas, and Michigan State at Shehee Stadium, with Iowa, Kansas State, Alabama, and LSU among those teams scheduled to visit Shreveport in 2003.

In 1980 the Golf Magazine College Player of the Year did not come from a traditional power. Hal Sutton, a native of Shreveport who stayed home to attend Centenary, won that honor as well as the 1980 U.S. Amateur. Sutton has gone on to win two Players Championships, a PGA Championship, and a Tour Championship, as well as earn a spot on four U.S. Ryder Cup teams.

Recently Centenary athletes have found their names at or near the top of the NCAA rankings. In 2000, women's soccer player Lara Brown led all Division I players in points per game and goals per game. Ronnie McCollum followed suit during the 2000-2001 basketball season, leading the nation in scoring. Andrew Wisniewski picked up where McCollum left off, finishing in the top 20 in scoring and steals during the 2002-2003 season.

Robert Parish '76

With the addition of men's and women's swimming in 2002-2003, Centenary now sponsors 16 intercollegiate sports, as many as any other Division I program in Northern Louisiana. The gymnastics team consistently qualifies for the USAG National Championships, the women's soccer team has won over 65 percent of their matches in the 11-year history of the program, and, most importantly, Centenary's athletes graduate, ready for the real world in whatever field they choose.

THE COLLEGE

Centenary College of Louisiana is a selective liberal arts college offering undergraduate programs in the arts, humanities, natural sciences, and social sciences, as well as a limited number of graduate programs. Students and faculty work together to sustain a community focused on ethical and intellectual development, respect and concern for human and spiritual values, and the joy of creativity and discovery. Consistent with its affiliation with the United Methodist Church, the College encourages a lifelong dedication not only to learning but also to serving others.

In pursuit of these ideals, the College challenges its students to write and speak clearly; to read, listen, and think critically; to comprehend, interpret, and synthesize ideas; to analyze information qualitatively and quantitatively; to appreciate the diversity of human cultures; to respect the value of artistic expression; to realize the importance of a healthy mind and body; and to recognize the interdependence of people and the environment.

Academic Program

Centenary College of Louisiana offers three undergraduate degree programs: the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science and the Bachelor of Music.

The Centenary curriculum aims to produce graduates of extraordinary intellectual and vocational versatility who are prepared to assume responsible positions in their communities and professions. The College prepares its students in critical thinking and in the fundamental communication skills of writing, speaking and numeracy.

The core curriculum begins with the First-Year Experience, which initiates an emphasis on critical thinking and rhetorical skills in an interdisciplinary context. The balance of the core curriculum further develops these skills while it introduces students to basic areas and fundamental techniques of human inquiry. Specific core requirements are the First-Year Experience and selected courses offering inquiry in the humanities, mathematics, natural sciences, and social sciences. Additionally, all undergraduates participate in the Centenary Plan, which involves a service-learning project, career exploration, and an intercultural experience.

Academic Facilities

Centenary has a personal computer for one of every three undergraduates. Every residence hall room is wired for free, direct Internet and computer connections. Some 30 computer laboratories are spread throughout campus, as are numerous multi-media editing and projection facilities. The Magale Library, the academic heart of the campus, has a wealth of volumes, searchable databases, personal computers, multi-media accessories, and software programs.

Specially equipped buildings and facilities include the Marjorie Lyons Playhouse, the Gold Dome, the Fitness Center and Swimming Pool, Mickle Hall of Science, Hurley Music Building, Jackson Hall, Turner Art Center, and the Meadows Museum of Art.

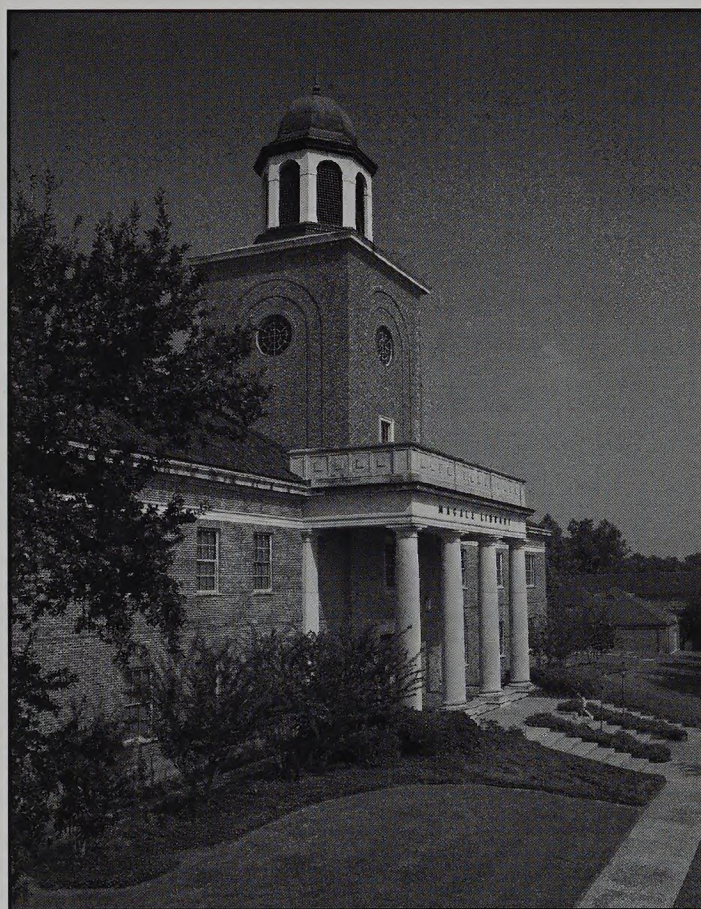

Faculty

More than 90 percent of Centenary's faculty holds the highest degree in their discipline. There are 74 full-time and 41 part-time faculty members, with a student-faculty ratio of 12 to 1. There are no graduate students teaching classes at Centenary. The primary emphasis is on teaching, although research and service activities are also important components of the Centenary experience. These activities involve undergraduates to an extent unavailable at large institutions.

Summary

Academic and co-curricular programs support students in their development and encourage them to become leaders in the work place, the community, the nation, and the world at large.

MAGALE LIBRARY

PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

DR. KENNETH L. SCHWAB President

Dr. Kenneth L. Schwab, President of Centenary College since 1991, has been firmly established as an excellent educator and administrator over nearly 30 years of service. During his career, Dr. Schwab has consistently applauded student athletes who pursue academics and sports with equal fervor, discipline, and high standards, and it is these characteristics that make Centenary Gents and Ladies stand out among their peers.

A tenured professor in the Department of Education, Dr. Schwab hails originally from Indiana where he received his bachelor's degree from Purdue University in 1969. He then earned his master's in guidance and counseling from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro in 1972 and his doctorate in higher education administration at Indiana University in 1978.

Though Dr. Schwab has held many administrative positions at Centenary and other institutions, he continues to pursue his own scholarship as well, publishing a book, numerous articles, and several institutional planning documents regarding presidential leadership and transformational change. Indeed, Dr. Schwab's keen interest in leadership and strategic planning helped Centenary's latest comprehensive campaign raise over $100 million for the college. This amount exceeded the initial goal by over $30 million, enabling Centenary to build two new music facilities as well as renovate residence halls and the fitness center.

These improvements do not merely benefit the campus, though. From the arboretum to the chapel, the playhouse to the library, recital halls to the Gold Dome, Centenary encourages student involvement, preparing scholars for active civic participation. This small liberal arts institution focuses on the student and endeavors to facilitate academic, athletic, and social development for the whole person. Our faculty and staff are committed to these goals, particularly for student athletes.

Dr. Schwab has actively involved himself with Centenary students throughout his tenure here. He team-taught Centenary's First-Year Experience program with the college's Chair of Liberal Arts one semester, and he travels with various Centenary groups like the college choir, always remaining a great Gents and Ladies supporter. In fact, he and the Centenary Gent mascot led the campus as they unveiled the new fitness center.

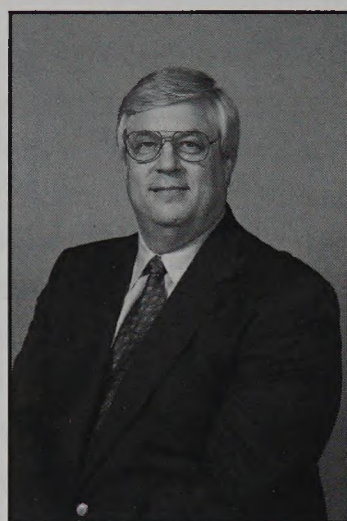

Active on-campus and off, Dr. Schwab participated in the Salzburg Seminar sponsored by the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, served as a European Community Visitor to the Commission of European Communities, and continued his scholarly work at Oxford, Johns Hopkins, and Harvard Universities. He also represents Centenary on a number of community and academic boards, including the Associated Colleges of the South Board of Directors.

Dr. Schwab's wife, Pat, earned her doctorate in education and now teaches a course each semester at Centenary. Their three sons (Kempton, Carlton, and Christopher) played select soccer throughout their school years.

Centenary President Dr. Kenneth Schwab cheers along with the students in the stands at the Gold Dome.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

TAYLOR MOORE
Director of Athletics

Taylor Moore, a Centenary alum and former owner of the Shreveport Captains baseball team, became the College's athletic director on July 1, 2003. Moore replaced Dr. David Bedard, who decided to return to the classroom as a professor of health and exercise science after serving as athletic director for almost four years.

A 1969 Centenary graduate and former Centenary baseball coach, Moore was president and majority owner of Shreveport Baseball, Inc., which operated the Shreveport Captains Baseball Club, until he sold the franchise in 2000. The Captains were a Double-A professional baseball club affiliated with the San Francisco Giants.

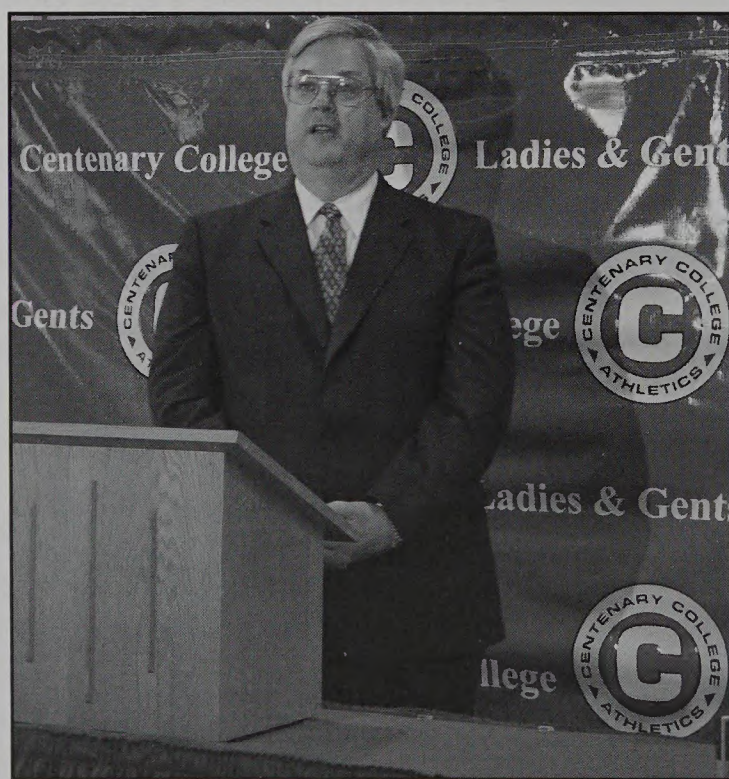

Moore has stayed active within the Centenary community, serving as a board member and former president of the Centenary Gents Club. In 2001 he received the Centenary Alumni Association's highest honor when he was named to the Alumni Hall of Fame.

Moore takes over a program that will begin play in the Mid-Continent Conference this fall after four years as an independent school. He will use his experience in leadership to make sure that Centenary athletics continues to grow and compete in its new home.

"Centenary has an exciting future ahead in athletics and I am pleased and honored to be able to have a part in it," Moore said. "I've been a member of the Centenary family for so long, I feel like I'm coming home. I have great respect for the College and its role in Division I competition."

Moore has been recognized with the Texas League Award of Merit for 25 years of leadership, the Shreveport-Bossier Advertising Federation's Award of Excellence, the Sports Foundation Sportsman of the Year Award and the Shreveport Journal Sportsman of the Year designation.

Long active in local civic affairs, Moore is a board member of the Frost Foundation, the Committee of One Hundred, Crimestoppers of Shreveport and Centenary College. Before taking over as athletic director, he served as secretary and member of the Executive Committee of the Centenary Board of Trustees.

"Taylor Moore can hit the ground running and we are fortunate to have someone of his caliber to lead us into this historic time for Centenary athletics."

Alan Edwards

The Centenary College sports medicine facility is located on the bottom floor of the Gold Dome, where continued improvements have resulted in an enhanced facility.

The improvements include an upgraded computer system with injury tracking software, the addition of two stationary bicycles, and an increased storage capacity for the daily supplies used in treatments of student-athletes.

The training room is equipped with modalities to assist athletic trainers in the treatment of injuries of Centenary athletes. The room also contains training tables, an ice machine, and a whirlpool.

Alan Edwards begins his ninth year as head athletic trainer for the Centenary athletic program. Edwards is a 1991 graduate of McNeese State University with a bachelor of science in health and physical education. He earned his master's degree in exercise science at Northeast Louisiana University in 1993. Edwards' services are provided through a partnership between Centenary College and Highland Hospital.

Edwards also supervises student and volunteer assistants as they gain valuable experience in their pursuit of becoming Certified Athletic Trainers. Student and volunteer assistants obtain practical experience at home and on the road, working with the Gents and Ladies athletic teams.

Head Athletic Trainer Alan Edwards works on the back of volleyball player Catey Batte before a 2002 practice. Edwards works with Centenary's athletes before, during, and after all Centenary practices and athletic events. The stimulus machine being used is one of the recent additions to the training room.

David Pratt

Sports Information Director

David Pratt is now in his fifth year as a member of the Centenary sports information department. After serving two years as an assistant, he was promoted to director of sports information in 2001. He is the primary media contact for men's and women's soccer, women's basketball, gymnastics, baseball, men's and women's swimming, and men's and women's cross country. In addition, he assists with the maintenance of the Centenary athletics website and is the color commentator for Gents baseball Internet broadcasts. Pratt oversees all athletic department media relations, publications, statistics activities, and game management efforts.

Pratt is a 1999 graduate of Centenary, earning his bachelor of arts degree in history. He was a shortstop on the Gents baseball team and a member of the history honor fraternity Phi Alpha Theta. He is presently a member of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) and the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). His wife Keeley is a 2001 Centenary graduate, an assistant in the Centenary financial aid office, and the sponsor of the Centenary Leading Ladies Dance Team.

Pratt has continued his association with baseball by serving as an instructor at the Centenary Summer Baseball Camps for the last five years.

Jason Behenna

Assistant Sports Information Director

Jason Behenna is starting his fourth year as the assistant sports information director at Centenary. He is the primary media contact for volleyball, men's basketball, softball, men's and women's tennis and men's and women's golf. In addition, he assists with the maintenance of the Centenary athletics website and the Centenary Gents basketball radio broadcasts. He also oversees the scheduling and performance of student workers and gameday staff.

Behenna graduated from the University of Southern California in 1996 with a bachelor of arts degree in print journalism and political science. He was chosen as a Trustee Scholar and received a full-tuition scholarship to attend USC. While at Southern California, he served as program director of KSCR, the student-run campus radio station.

In November 2000, he appeared on the ESPN sports trivia game show "2-Minute Drill" and won a first-round match of the inaugural tournament. He is presently a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and the Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA). Behenna is a member of the CoSIDA Publicists for Olympic Sports Committee.

Originally from Everett, Mass., Behenna now lives in Shreveport..

HEAD COACH

Head Coach

On December 2, 1996, Jed Jones was hired as the fourth head coach in Centenary soccer history. He spent two seasons serving as an assistant coach to Centenary soccer pioneer Glenn Evans. He began his first collegiate head coaching position as the skipper for both the Centenary College Gents and Ladies soccer program in 1996 after a successful collegiate and professional playing career.

A native of Norman, Oklahoma, Jones played professional soccer for the Oklahoma City Slickers of the USISL from 1992 to 1994. Prior to that he played an exhibition match against the United States National Team in 1991 while playing for the Oklahoma City Spirit, a semi-professional team. Jones also helped to lead the Spirit to the Lone Star Soccer Alliance Championship in 1989.

Jones played collegiately at Oklahoma City University, where he served as a captain for the Chiefs all four years. He also helped OCU to the NAIA District Nine finals three straight seasons. In 1987, as a sophomore, he led the Chiefs in scoring. Jones graduated from OCU in 1994 with a bachelor of science degree in education.

Coach Jones has extensive experience in coaching soccer. He came to Centenary after serving as an assistant coach at his alma mater for two years. Prior to his stint at OCU, he was an assistant coach at Norman High School. Jones has been the head coach of many club teams and has been an instructor of numerous soccer camps. He is currently on the Olympic Development Program Region III coaching staff as well as a member of the Louisiana State coaching staff.

Jones holds a United States Soccer Federation "A" Coaching License as well as the International Coaching License of the Football Association of Ireland.

Jones and his wife, the former Stacey Kroll, have a son named Carson.

ASSISTANT COACHES

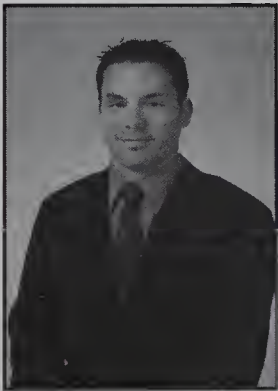

GLENN EVANS
Assistant Coach

Coach Glenn Evans, the pioneer of Centenary's soccer program, stepped down seven years ago as head coach of the Gents and Ladies soccer programs. He then focused his attention on serving as the assistant to coach Jed Jones for the Ladies soccer team. Evans left large shoes to fill for Jones. He posted a 161-105-3 (.604) record in 14 seasons as the head coach of the Gents soccer program and a 66-25-3 (.725) record in five seasons as the Ladies head coach.

Evans guided the Gents program from its inception through 1978, before returning at the start of the 1983 campaign. During his tenure, the Gents posted nine consecutive winning seasons (1983-91), including three straight Trans America Athletic Conference Championships. For his and the team's efforts, he was named TAAC Coach of the Year in 1983, 1988, 1989, and 1990 as well as receiving that honor for his direction of the Ladies program in 1994.

The Herkimer, New York native earned a B.S. in health & physical education from Centenary in 1969. He received a master's degree in education from the University of Georgia in 1970. Evans is the Superintendent of Athletics for Shreveport Parks and Recreation. He and his wife, Karen, have four sons: Chad, Scott, Trey and Brian.

ERIC MAYO
Assistant Coach

Eric Mayo joins the Gents coaching staff for his second season after playing four successful seasons at Centenary. He will assist in fundraising, camps, recruiting, practices, and all other aspects concerning the men's soccer team.

Mayo graduated from Centenary College in 2002 with a degree in health & exercise science. He was a four-year starter for the Gents and a captain. In his career, Eric played in 62 matches and scored seven goals, tallied five assists, and accumulated 19 total points.

Mayo served as coach of the Airline High School varsity and junior varsity girls teams in 2001, as well as the Southwood High School varsity and junior varsity girls teams in 2000. While at Airline HS, he was named District Co-Coach of the Year. Mayo is currently the coach of the University Soccer Club U-18 boys select team.

Eric and his wife Jenny reside in Shreveport. He is the son of Terri Mayo and has one brother and one sister.

CHASE WOOTEN
Assistant Coach

Chase Wooten enters his first season as an assistant coach for the Ladies. A 1998 graduate of Centenary, Chase returns home after coaching the goalkeepers at the University of Alabama last year.

Prior to his stint with the Crimson Tide, Wooten served as the head coach at Caddo Magnet High School in Shreveport. He was in charge of both the women's and men's programs from 1998 to 2001. Chase earned Boys High School District Coach of the Year in both 1999 and 2001 while also earning the honor on the girls side in 2001.

Wooten enjoyed a great deal of success at Caddo Magnet High School as he led both programs to district championships in 1999, 2000, and 2001. In 2001, he took the girls team to the state championships where they finished as the state runner-up.

As a player at Centenary, Wooten tended goal from 1995 to 1997. He currently owns the third lowest career goals against average in Centenary history at 1.51.

Chase married the former Amber Baggett in May of 2002.

2003 SEASON OUTLOOK

The Centenary Ladies begin their first year in the Mid-Continent Conference in 2003 and are expecting to make a big splash in their debut season. The Ladies have ten of 11 starters returning and have added one of the biggest recruiting classes in several years to provide depth.

Junior Ashlee Mantooth returns as the leading scorer after finishing with nine goals and 19 points last season. Mindi Levinski is back to steer the offense in 2003 as she collected nine assists en route to being named first team All-Independent. Angela Tryba and Kylie Garrett will return to the team after missing the majority of 2002 with knee injuries, and the core of the defense all return.

The most notable change on the field will be in goal as the Ladies lost keeper Heather Lindsey to graduation. Lindsey holds several records at the position and leaves big shoes to fill. The team will look to sophomore Lindsey Stafford to be strong between the pipes in her first season as a starter.

"We think Lindsey will step up to the challenge as we have really seen her blossom as a result of working with new coach Chase Wooten," said head coach Jed Jones.

The rest of the defense boasts of battle-tested veterans that have been very stingy when it comes to allowing goals. The trio of Sara Thompson, Jamila Smith, and Melissa Tharp contributed heavily in the nine shutouts last year.

Add Alabama transfer Courtney McCotter and newcomer Lauren Mills to the mix this season and the Centenary defensive corps look to be even tougher in 2003.

On the offensive side, the Ladies are looking for Tryba to regain the form that landed her an All-Louisiana selection in 2001. She has shown her potential as a goal scorer in the past, netting eight goals in 2001 and nine goals in 1999. She is expected to be playing at 100% after fully recovering from her injury last year.

Lyndsay Bigler should also play a major factor in the success of the offense. Named All-Independent for her nine goals in 2000 and again for her six goals in 2002, she will help solidify the forward position.

Newcomer Rebecca Wiese has been impressive in preseason practice and could see some time up front as well.

Levinski will lead the midfielders again this season and she will receive some help from the highly energetic Kylie Garrett. Also recovering from an injury, Garrett had three goals in 12 matches last season.

The always steady Rita Coolidge will see plenty of time in the midfield in 2003 and look for Ashley Bouillion to slide over from time to time from her forward slot.

The Ladies start their season with a pair of tough road contests. The opener pits Centenary against Northern Iowa in El Paso, Tex. Less than 48 hours later, the Ladies will tangle with the potent host school of Texas-El Paso. Last season the two dueled it out in Shreveport until UTEP finally took the match 2-1 in double overtime.

The schedule does not lighten up as Texas Christian comes to town for the team's first home match on the year. The Ladies will continue to play their local rivals such as Louisiana-Monroe, Northwestern State, Stephen F. Austin, Arkansas-Little Rock, and Louisiana-Lafayette. But this season there will be some added interest on the schedule when the Ladies begin Mid-Con play on September 21 against Oakland University, the preseason pick to win the conference. The rest of the preseason poll is as follows: (2) ORU, (3) Valparaiso, (4) Centenary, (5) Southern Utah, (6) IUPUI, and (7) Western Illinois.

Junior Ashlee Mantooth led the Ladies in goals (nine) and points (19) last season.

With 11 sophomores and only one senior on the roster, the 2002 Ladies pulled together to post a 12-7 record. It was the fourth consecutive year that the women's team at Centenary posted a winning mark and the tenth time in the 11-year history of the program that they accomplished the feat.

The success of the 2002 squad was due in large part to several players stepping up to provide leadership and quality minutes on the field.

The 2002 campaign began with a season-ending injury to junior Angela Tryba in the first game of the year. Tryba was to be one of the offensive leaders for the Ladies after scoring 17 goals through her first two seasons with the club.

However, sophomore Ashley Mantooth picked up the slack and finished the season as the leading scorer for the Ladies with nine goals and one assist. Mantooth had played in only two matches as a freshman in 2001 and tallied only one assist. She would be rewarded for her efforts as she was named honorable mention All-Independent.

Junior Lyndsay Bigler rebounded from her sub-par sophomore season to once again serve as an offensive threat for the Ladies. She finished with 17 points with a balanced scoring effort of six goals and five assists. More importantly, she proved to be the go-to player for Coach Jones as four of her six goals were game-winners.

Sophomore Mindi Levinski dominated her opponents at the mid-field position and smoothly ran the offense as well. She recorded four goals and nine assists for 17 points on the season. Her 17 points tied her for second on the team and her nine assists tied her for the second most all-time in a Centenary single season.

Other players that contributed heavily on offense included Ashley Bouillion (four goals, three assists), Ashley Grannan (three goals, two game-winners, and four assists), and Lacey Stewart (three goals, four assists). Kylie Garrett totaled three goals and four assists but was lost for the season with a knee injury after only 12 matches.

The defensive unit, anchored by senior keeper Heather Lindsey, again proved to be the strength of the team. Melissa Tharp, Sara Thompson, Jamila Smith, and Ledah Smith put the clamps on opposing offenses, allowing only 197 shots compared to 334 by the Ladies. Lindsey compiled 93 saves in the net to go with her nine shutouts and a goals against average of 1.27.

On the season, Centenary put together two long winning streaks. The Ladies won seven straight games from September 6th to the 24th and four consecutive contests from October 4th to the 15th. The longest losing slide of the year lasted only three matches.

The Ladies came out of the gate slowly as they dropped their season opener to Tennessee Tech, 2-1. Yet, they rebounded from the emotional set back of losing Tryba to claim their next match against Mercer. In that game, freshman Marielle Phillips scored her first career goal and Ledah Smith notched her only score on the season to give Centenary the 2-1 victory.

After losing to Texas Christian 6-0, the Ladies rattled off seven consecutive wins starting with a 4-3 overtime victory over Mercer. Centenary then posted six straight shutouts as the Ladies outscored their opponents 30-0 over the stretch.

During that time, the team collected wins over South Carolina State (7-0), Northwestern State (1-0), Lipscomb (1-0), Arkansas-Little Rock (1-0), Arkansas State (1-0), and Alcorn State (19-0).

Next the Ladies ran into a very tough Texas-El Paso team that included the leading scorer in the NCAA in Holly Cohen. Centenary hung tough but fell 2-1 in double overtime on a goal by Cohen in the 106th minute.

The Ladies continued to stumble as the offense ran dry. They lost to Louisiana-Lafayette 1-0 while managing only five shots in the match. Four days later they would lose by the same score to Stephen F. Austin for the first time in ten meetings.

Centenary recovered and went 4-2 down the stretch with wins over Lipscomb, Austin Peay, Louisiana-Monroe, and Nicholls State. In addition to Mantooth's honor, Levinski was named first team All-Independent as well as Lindsey. Bigler was selected as an honorable mention member and Jed Jones received coach of the year accolades.

2003 SEASON OUTLOOK

The 2003 Centenary Gents have high expectations for themselves after finishing last season at 14-5. They return ten of 11 starters including Garret Pickard, who finished third in the NCAA with an average of 0.84 assists per game. They also have an added advantage over the other Centenary athletic teams heading into their first season of Mid-Con play having played five games against conference foes last season. In those five games, the Gents went 3-2 with wins over ORU, Valparaiso, and IUPUI. Centenary dropped matches to Western Illinois and ORU, but the ability to know exactly the challenge that lies ahead is comforting to head coach Jed Jones.

Another factor that will help the Gents is their strength of schedule. Centenary will prepare themselves for a tough run through the Mid-Con by playing top-notch programs early in the season such as Southern Methodist, Alabama-Birmingham, Stetson, and Central Florida.

The Gents begin Mid-Con play on September 17 at Western Illinois. They will play their first conference home game eight days later when they host IUPUI on Mayo Field.

The preseason Mid-Con coaches poll was not kind to the Gents despite having a winning record against the conference in 2002. The complete poll is as follows: (1) Oakland, (2) UMKC, (3) Western Illinois, (4) Valparaiso, (5) Centenary and ORU, and (7) IUPUI.

"I have high hopes for this year's squad," said Jones. "We expect to finish in the top four and qualify for the conference tournament. Not only do we have a great compliment of players returning, but we have brought in some tremendous talent. We now have 18-plus legitimate Division I players to give us the deepest team since I've been here at Centenary."

One of the strong areas of this year's team will again be the offense. Last season the Gents finished second in the NCAA in scoring with an average of 3.32 goals per game. The squad tallied 63 goals in 19 matches as seven players contributed at least ten points and three players totaled at least ten goals.

In addition to Pickard, who finished with ten goals and 16 assists, Felipe Pereira returns after posting an extraordinary 14 goals to go along with five assists. Both Pickard and Pereira were named to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America/Adidas All-Region Team for their efforts in 2002.

Newcomer Alexander Smith will also see time at the forward position as he has impressed the coaching staff in preseason workouts.

"We are a very creative team offensively with Pickard, Pereira, and Smith up front," said Jones. "Our forwards are attack-minded and will draw the focus of the defense."

Returning in the midfield is the talented five-some of Greg Clarke, Jeffrey Krulin, Michael Krulin, Ryan Nicholson, and Jason Williams.

Clarke provided plenty of offense from his midfield position last year as he finished with ten goals and six assists. Michael Krulin added seven goals and five assists while netting game-winners against Drury and Wiley. Nicholson finished second on the team with seven assists and added three goals, while Jeffrey Krulin had two goals, six assists, and the game-winner over IUPUI. Williams played in all 19 matches as a defender, but did score a goal. Between the five midfielders, the group collected 23 goals,

Senior Garret Pickard totaled 36 points in 2002 and finished third in the NCAA with an average of 0.84 assists per game.

25 assists, and 71 total points.

Coach Jones has put a lot of emphasis on continuing to improve the team defense for this season.

"Defense is stressed everyday in practice as far as how we act collectively as a unit," said Jones. "I believe defense wins championships."

Anchoring the defense again in 2003 will be Aaron Elrod. Elrod led a group that allowed 91 fewer shots than the Gents got off as a team last season. The team also collected five shutouts on the year as the Centenary opponents were not able to accomplish that feat even once.

Other key players on the defensive side include Jonathan Wright, Steven Beathard, and Justin Clark. Wright earned a wealth of experience last season as a freshman, appearing in 17 matches. Likewise, Beathard saw time in 19 matches in his debut season while Clark sat out the entire season because of injury. However, he did get 17 matches under his belt in 2001.

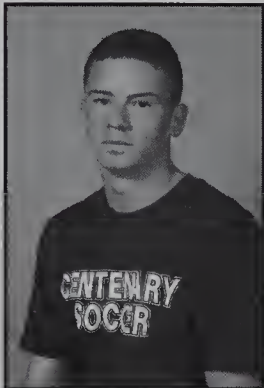

Stefan Nicola will again serve as the last line of defense for the Gents as he will take his place in goal for the third consecutive season. The coaching staff expects great things from Nicola this year after observing his growth on the field last year. In his sophomore season, he collected four shutouts, earned a goals against average of 1.40, and collected 68 saves.

2002 SEASON REVIEW

The Centenary Gents enjoyed one of their best seasons since 1989 as the club finished 14-5 on the year. One of the main reasons for the success of the team was its ability to score. The Gents netted 63 goals in 19 matches for an average of 3.32 goals per game. That mark ranked Centenary as the second highest scoring team in the NCAA last season.

The Gents boasted three players that scored ten or more goals and seven players that totaled ten or more points. Garret Pickard led the charge as he accumulated 36 points on ten goals and 16 assists. His high number of assists were good enough to place him in second place all-time for assists in a Centenary single season. Pickard also ranked third in the NCAA for assists per game at 0.84 and 19th in points per game with 1.89.

Felipe Pereira proved to be a steady force from the forward position as he scored 14 times, including four game-winners, leading the Gents in both categories.

Greg Clarke turned in a breakout season as he recorded only one assist for one point in 2001, but connected for ten goals and six assists to finish third on the team with 26 total points. Senior Nathan McAbee provided leadership and showed his calm under pressure as he came through with three game-winning goals to lead the Gents over Loyola of Chicago, LeTourneau, and Oral Roberts.

Defensively, the Gents turned up the pressure as they allowed only 29 goals on the season compared to 40 in 2001. Stefan Nicola did not suffer through a sophomore slump as his numbers improved dramatically over his freshman campaign. He finished with a goals against average of 2.32 with 71 saves in his initial season, but came into his own in 2002, posting a goals against average of 1.40 with 68 saves.

Most seasons feature many ups and downs, but for the Gents in 2002, the year provided more highs than lows. The season started with a 3-1 loss at Oral Roberts and was followed by an unlikely 3-2 loss at home to Lipscomb. The Gents were previously undefeated against the Bisons, but looked flat in the early season match.

Centenary rebounded quickly as the team downed Stetson 1-0 just two days later in an overtime thriller. Pickard found the net in the 98th minute off a pass from Ryan Nicholson to capture the first victory on the year. The Gents gained confidence as they easily handled Wiley College on the road, dropping the Wildcats by a score of 4-0.

While continuing to gain momentum, the Gents faced a tough task ahead as they traveled to Missouri to take on Drury. Entering the match, Centenary was 1-4 all-time against the Panthers.

Things went well for the Gents early as Josh Chambers and Felipe Pereira both scored to provide a 2-0 advantage. Drury then stormed back, scoring two goals in less than three minutes to tie the game. The game remained knotted until Pereira broke through with his second goal of the game just two minutes into the second overtime period.

Centenary extended its win streak to five games after disposing of Birmingham-Southern 2-1, the third overtime win in four games, and defeating Texas Christian 4-0.

The win streak would come to an end, however, as the Gents ran into future Mid-Con foe Western Illinois. Playing in Macomb, Ill., for the first time did not bode well for the team as they managed only four shots on goal and fell to the Leathernecks, 3-1.

The Gents did not stay down for long as they again rebounded quickly to defeat Loyola of Chicago the following day, 4-3. Centenary had begun a new winning streak that would span the next six matches and seven games in all.

Centenary returned home and readily dispatched LeTourneau, 2-0, with goals by Nathan McAbee and Pereira. On

Stefan Nicola

October 6, the Gents completed their sweep of Drury with a 3-1 win at Mayo Field.

The team was again on a roll with a chance to avenge their first loss of the season and would face three future Mid-Con rivals over the next three matches. Senior Nathan McAbee came up big against Oral Roberts as he scored in the 73rd and 75th minutes to give the Gents the 2-1 victory. Centenary then downed Valparaiso 5-2 and beat IUPUI 2-1 in double overtime.

The seven-game win streak was rounded out with a 17-0 thumping of Wiley College back in Shreveport.

With a record of 12-3, the Gents would cool down and play .500 ball the rest of the way, falling to Oklahoma City, 4-3, and UMKC, 2-1. Centenary finished at 14-5 with victories over Southern Nazarene, 3-1, and Mercer, 3-2.

The end of the 2002 season marked the first time the Gents have had back to back winning seasons since 1990 and 1991.

SOCCER FACILITIES

For most teams, success on the field is the result of hard work and preparation. At Centenary, the formula is no different as not only do we receive great efforts from our athletes, but from coaches, administration, and alumni as well. As a result, both the Gents and Ladies soccer programs enjoy fine facilities in which to train and compete.

Mayo Field has served as the home site for all Centenary soccer contests since the inception of the men's program in 1979. Originally referred to as the Centenary Soccer Complex, the field was renamed in 2001 in honor of Lewis Mayo. Mayo, the father of former Gents player Eric Mayo, lost his life heroically fighting a fire while serving the Houston, Texas, area as a member of the fire department. His family graciously donated the funds that allowed Centenary to erect a quality lighting system. The first-ever night soccer game at Centenary was played on August 31, 2001, against Georgia Southern University. A memorial to Lewis Mayo stands at the entryway to the field named in his honor.

Various other upgrades and additions have been made to Mayo Field over the past several years. New stands for seating were installed in 2000 that now allows for a crowd of 500 to comfortably cheer on the Ladies and Gents. A physical plant building was transformed in 2000 to house a new locker room and three offices for the soccer coaches and staff.

In 2001, a new building for concessions and restrooms was added next to the playing field to provide a better overall experience for all fans that visit Mayo Field.

2002 brought on several upgrades to the field itself. The chain link fencing that surrounded the field was torn down and new black iron fencing was installed to enhance the overall look. The playing surface was improved with the addition of an underground drainage system that will allow the field to remain playable in adverse weather conditions. Most recently, netting was hung behind both goals to limit the amount of balls that leave the playing area.

With contributions from generous alumni and friends of the college, the Centenary soccer program will look to continue to make a trip to Mayo Field an enjoyable experience for all of those involved.

The Sports Fitness Center is also a crucial component to the success of the Ladies and Gents programs. The $10 million facility, remodeled and expanded, reopened in 2000 with state of the art weight and exercise machines. Players can workout in the facility both on their own and as a team. Other features of the Fitness Center include: hot tubs and saunas, dressing rooms, a pool, classrooms, dance studios, and courts for basketball and racquetball.

In the fall of 2002, the Wilhite Media Room was completed in the Gold Dome. The room features stadium seating, a projector, and sophisticated computer software that allows teams to edit game footage in order to better scout and review opponents. The Wilhite Media Room is most commonly used as a meeting room for teams and staff as well as a working room for the media during events held in the Gold Dome. All press conferences are also held in the room.
